

Hello, my name is Olivier Berube-MacInnis. I have been involved in Nova Scotia rock climbing for over a decade now, and work as a youth coach at Seven Bays Bouldering. I grew up competing in bouldering competitions and am passionate about introducing people to the beautiful outdoor climbing scene in Nova Scotia. I am currently pursuing a degree in journalism and am excited to bring those skills to help foster a healthy, inclusive climbing community.